19 Silverwood Drive, Cooroibah

Picturesque Private Dual Living

Enjoy the privacy and tranquillity of this rural haven abundant with natural gardens and wild life.

Set in Cooroibah this 2.7 acre property is complete with two separately metered dwellings and is perfect for investment or extra income. The studio currently brings a tidy income and would be perfect for Air BnB or permanent tenancy. Both dwellings face away from each other ensuring quiet privacy.

The gardens are well established and easily maintainable, with flourishing citrus trees amongst the grounds and is serviced with town water, bus stop meters from the drive way, fenced on three sides with approximately an acre of unused land at the back of the property, there is room for a horse and or small hobby farm.

With endless possibilities and great potential for investment return or simply enough room to accommodate a large family, not to mention the Studio would make a great office space for individuals that work from home.
